

4th Article 4, paragraph 49 of the Law of 24 December 2003, n. 350, as amended, have made the following changes: a) in the second period are added, finally, the following words: "or the use of Italian labels on products or goods not originating in Italy under the European legislation without any indication about the precise character evident in their country or their place of manufacture or production, or other indication sufficient to avoid any mistake on their Actual foreign origin ", b) is added at the end, the following sentence: "The false and misleading indications of source or origin can not be settled when the goods or the goods have already been released for free circulation" .